COLLECTIONS POLICY / MISSION STATEMENT

The archives of St. Thomas High School is the repository of manuscripts, photographs, scrapbooks and more that relates to the 100+ years of the school's history.

GENERAL OVERVIEW OF COLLECTIONS

Strengths: Manuscript collection is arranged by name of high school principal, and is available for research and exhibits. Photographs date back to the early 1900s and are also available for exhibit and may be requested as reproductions for alumni and others.

Weaknesses: A backlog of processing the documents; lack of space and personnel and/or volunteers.
